RANGITIKEI DISTRICT COUNCIL

MOKAI BRIDGE BUNGY JUMPING BYLAW 2008

1 Title

This bylaw shall be known as the Rangitikei District Council Mokai Bridge Bungy Jumping Bylaw 2008.

2 Commencement

This Bylaw shall come into force on the day after it is adopted[1].

3 Purpose

The purpose of this bylaw is to ensure sufficient authority for an operator to use Mokai Bridge.

4 Definitions

For the purposes of this bylaw, unless inconsistent with the context, the following definitions apply:

"Bridge"	Mokai Bridge
"Council"	Rangitikei District Council

5 Authority to use Mokai Bridge

The Rangitikei District Council hereby authorises an operator to use the Mokai Bridge and the road immediately adjoining that bridge to the extent required for the activity of bungy-jumping and any other associated or related or similar recreational or tourist activities (hereinafter referred to as the "the activity"), and to construct such platform(s) or other structure(s) that may be required under the bridge for the purposes of the carrying out of the activity, provided that:

(i) any such operator must have obtained prior to the commencement of the activity all requisite statutory consents and approvals whatsoever required; and

(ii) has entered into a licence to so use and occupy the bridge and the adjoining road to the extent required and defined in the Licence to Occupy, that licence to be granted on such terms and conditions as the Council or duly authorised officer of the Council thinks fit.

[1] This bylaw was adopted by the Rangiitikei District Council on 29 May 2008.
