

Marton Golf Course

Nau mai, haere mai, welcome to Rangitīkei...

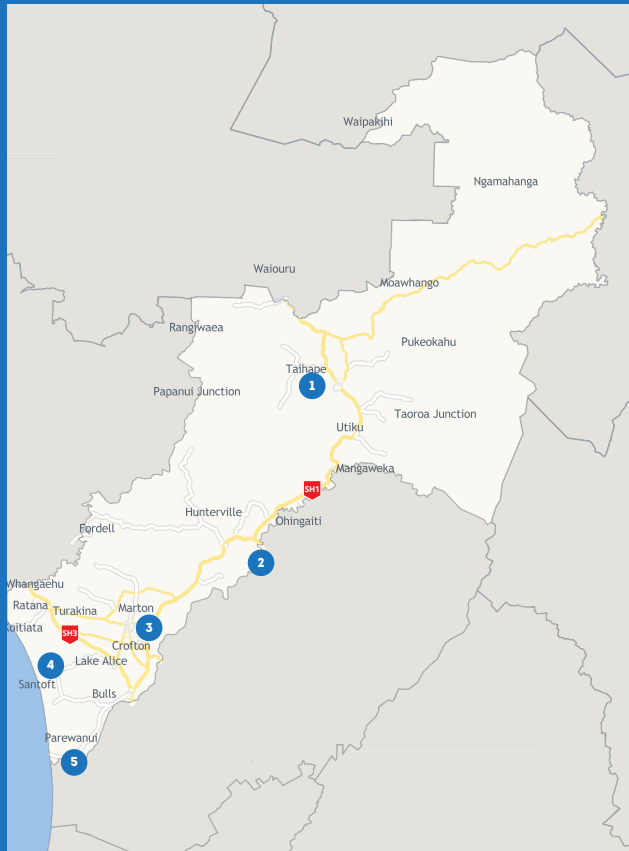

New Zealand is home to some of the most spectacular golf courses in the world and Rangitīkei golf courses are no exception.

Play your golf on some of the best kept golfing secrets? You will play on uncrowded fairways, where you don't always need to book a tee time and where tuis and bellbirds will watch your shots with interest. You can play on a unique three leveled course, where the ride back to the club house is in an electric cable car or you can count your strokes along side stunning views of the Rangitīkei River.

Rangitīkei golf courses boast natural terrain, courses are magnificent to behold and also a challenge to play.

Choose your course from any of the five, or better still, stay and play all five for the ultimate golfing getaway.

AOTEAROA

1 Taihape Golf Club

Situated on State Highway 1, 5km north of Taihape, this challenging 18 hole course is a "tester" for all golfers. A feature is the par 3, 12th hole described by Arnold Palmer as "The best natural par 3 he has played." Although there is only one bunker, there are well positioned trees and a picturesque river to manoeuvre your way around throughout the 18 holes. The course has undulating fairways, with moderate climbing on four holes, and large greens.

2 Rangatira Golf Club

Rangatira Golf Club is situated on state highway one 12km north of Hunterville. The course is on three levels with outstanding views of the scenic Rangitikei River. Our unique feature is the electric cable car which brings you back to the clubhouse from the bottom level after the 18th hole. The well-groomed fairways and watered greens are surrounded by native birds and bush. There are no bunkers.

3 Hawkestone Golf Club

Offering an awesome nine-hole country golf club, Hawkestone is a great destination for players looking to play 9 or 18 holes. The course has wide fairways and flat greens. The 18 tee blocks mean every hole is slightly different, adding an element of risk and reward depending upon the level of skill and risk of the golfers. This is a great place for casual players or more experienced golfers and is packed with great fun for you and your mates.
