8.2 Mayor's Report - 01 February 2024

Author: Andy Watson, His Worship the Mayor

Welcome to 2024. Everybody needed the Christmas break - the pressures that had been on staff and councillors for some time had been very high and the early feeling back this year is one of positivity, we are looking forward to the challenges of delivering the Long-Term Plan and other things such as Roding Procurement.

Over the break Beth and I attended the Christmas Day Community Lunch in Marton put on by Marton Christian Welfare and Emily Rayner and supported by a number of sponsors. Normally I attend Christmas Day lunches in Taihape and Marton on alternate years – this year was Marton and we enjoyed being part of that.

I have just spent four days at Ratana which is an annual gathering of the Morehu (the followers of the Ratana faith) to celebrate the birthday of TW Ratana. This year it was also a process giving recognition to the new Tumuaki of the Ratana Church Manuao. The crowds were enormous, probably the biggest gathering I've seen at Ratana for some time. Part of the reason for this was the concern nationally, from the government and coalition partners around the use of Te Reo Maori language and the questioning from the government around a review of the Treaty settlement. Prior to the government being received there were numerous speakers on the paepae essentially saying that if government went down the path of a review of the Treaty principles they would use every means they had available to fight that government position. In their view, the significant progress that has been made over the last few years incorporating Te Reo into a standardised usage in some shape or form with government departments has been fantastic and they will fight to see that it is retained. That was the scene that was set ahead of the Prime Minister coming on. Mr Luxon took care to establish very quickly that this was not the intention of government - it was part of the coalition discussion with ACT and the government would not be progressing further. This conversation was fairly well received but I am sure that the korero will resume at Waitangi next week.

As always, the start of the new year comes with a number of significant community events that the Rangitikei is incredibly well known for. Last weekend saw the Marton Country Music Festival where there were over 600 campervans at Wilson Park for the best part of four days. These are record numbers I think which gives a tick of approval to Michael and Ashley Tipping from Matamata who have taken over running the Festival for the first time this year. Unfortunately for the first time I had a significant clash with a family wedding and was unable to attend. I did meet with them however at set-up time and post-event essentially a clean-up. They said that in spite of a couple of periods of rain the event was a phenomenal success. They intend to build on this for subsequent years. The following weekend saw Kiwiburn held at Hunterville, the Highland Games at Turakina, Gumboot Day in Taihape and I will look to get around all of them as well as attending an unveiling in Taihape on Saturday. We have a number of events coming up in the near future too such as the Shearing Sports, Fest-a-Bull and CampFest in Bulls. As a Council we try and support all of these events in some manner as they bring a huge number of visitors who spend money within our district.

On 19 December I attended Suze Redmayne's maiden speech at Parliament. This represents a new era for our connection with central government in the Rangitikei. Suze spoke incredibly well and has followed up her speech by becoming actively involved in a number of issues related to the Rangitikei. Suze is a breath of fresh air in this space.

We are working on finalisation of the Long-Term Plan Consultation Document and the process we will use to engage with the community. We are looking to be able to reveal that position in February.
